

TAKE A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE ENERGY & WATER FORUM!

Why Become an Energy & Water Forum Sponsor?

- Get Your Message to the Right People – ADC brings together key decision makers important to your organization. With attendees from defense communities, state governments, the private sector, DOD and other federal agencies, the DOD Energy & Water Forum is the ideal event to showcase your organization's capabilities.
- Be Recognized as a Leader in Your Field – Partnering with ADC helps your organization communicate your value to ADC members by demonstrating your commitment to their issues.
- Play a Lead Role in the Forum Program – Work with ADC to develop a session or workshop that will offer significant value to Forum attendees and demonstrate your organization's expertise.

If your organization is interested in playing a larger role at the DOD Energy & Water Forum, find the right partnership opportunity for your organization below.
